

em We then came on to Henderson, Mercer Oh Co. where we began meeting Tuesday ah! evening, Oct. 18th. The weather, still continued rainy, yet the hall was usually well filled, sometimes crowded. A cold hard-hearted prejudice generally prevailed in the minds of the people, largely owing to the corrupt works of J. C. Fisher. In this state his disgraceful fall has hurt the cause of Christ more than any where else. Had not our first denunciation of his evil deeds appeared when it did, greater disasters would have resulted. But by that blast much of the works of the devil was cut off.
Praise God! His Holy Spirit in us, and our preaching and deportment before the people, soon began to wear down the mountain of prejudice. The Spirit of the living God gave us confidence in the minds of the people; then He soon worked conviction in their hearts, and a general change was wrought in the entire community. A number of lost sinners were captured by the love of God, and set free from the painful and heavy yoke of sin. How wonderful the change! No wonder there is joy among the angels of Heaven when one sinner repents. When there is a genuine repentance unto life, and the joys of salvation. Nearly all the converts also consecrated for entire sanctification. Some of the brethren having been unwisely, and unscripturally pressed into a confusion of sanctification by J. C. Fisher, realized that they did not really possess that wonderful grace; and they consecrated and received the same. About all the Church was much strengthened, and built up, and immense good resulted in every way. On Sabbath Nov. the 4th, nine happy souls were gently buried with Christ by the hands of dear Bro. Barney Warren. Immediately on rising from the symbolic grave, their souls were filled with joy, and power, and glory, and their uplifted hands and shouts of praises but poorly expressed the rich blessing of God that thrilled their hearts, and glowed in their faces. O it was marvelously sacred, and even filled our souls with glory to behold. Hallelujah! Dear Bro. Butterfield was appointed of the Lord, and of us, to take part with Bro. Job Perrine in the duties of an Elder.
